

Corn Palace Stampede Queen Contest

Miscellaneous Information

Contestant Expenses

- * Required to make your own lodging arrangements.
- * Required to pay your own transportation to and from pageant.

General Information

- * Judging will take precedence over all pageant activities. Judging will begin at the Contestant's first activity and will continue throughout the pageant.
- * No drinking of alcoholic beverages or use of tobacco products in public or anytime during competition. If caught using either alcohol or tobacco products, you will automatically be disqualified from the Queen Contest.
- * Complete cooperation must be given to all Contestants, parents, Queen Coordinator and/or rodeo committee.
- * No cell phones will be allowed during the contest except for emergency use. You may carry a cell phone with you but we do not want you using it to make personal phone calls during the Queen Contest.
- * Each Contestant is required to attend all activities outlined in the schedule and be on time for all events. There will be a 5-point deduction off the total score each time that you are late.
- * Each Contestant will receive a pass to the rodeo and one ticket for a parent to Thursday night's performance.
- * All Contestants are encouraged to send Thank You notes to the sponsors from whom they receive any meals or gifts. If a Contestant receives roses, a trophy, belt buckle, crown, banner or any other gift, Thank You notes should be sent to these people. These sponsors are very important to this contest and need to be shown that all the Contestants appreciate their support.
- * The Corn Palace Stampede Rodeo Committee is very excited about this contest and we feel it will be a great experience for everyone involved. We are here to help you in any way that we can. If you have any questions or need help with anything, please don't hesitate to call
